A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

*Above: Charleston County Board of Voter Registration and Elections
Executive Director Isaac Cramer*

Dear Potential Candidate,

Welcome to the Charleston County Board of Voter Registration and Elections' Candidate Filing Guide for 2026.

This guide is designed to help you confidently navigate the process of becoming a candidate for public office.

In this guide, you'll find clear information to ensure you understand the filing process and are well prepared for your campaign to begin.

Inside, you'll find:

- Important Filing Dates and Deadlines
- Eligibility Requirements
- 2026 Election Information
- Frequently Asked Questions

This year, we will also be holding a Candidate Workshop on Tuesday, March 3, at 6:00 PM. We'll review everything you need to know about filing and running for an elected office, and provide helpful resources. For more information, see page 4.

We encourage you to carefully review this guide and contact us with any questions or for further support.

Your commitment to public service strengthens our community, and we're here to assist you every step of the way.

Isaac Cramer
Executive Director

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS - FILING

Do I have to pay a filing fee to run for office?

It depends. If you are running for a partisan office and are affiliating with either the Democratic Party or the Republican Party, you must pay a filing fee. If you choose to affiliate with a different party, there is not filing fee.

For nonpartisan offices on the 2026 ballot, you do not pay a filing fee.

What are the accepted forms of payment for the filing fee?

You must pay via check or money order.

Who do I make the check or money order out to?

Checks or money orders should be made out to the appropriate state political party.

Can I file online?

No, candidates must file in person.

Can someone else drop off my filing form and filing fee?

Yes, as long as you sign in the presence of a notary public and have them complete the notary section on the filing form.

How can I see who has filed for office?

You can view all candidates via the State Election Commission's Candidate Tracking System.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS - FILING

Can I use my nickname on the ballot?

Yes, under certain circumstances. Per SC State Law Section 7-13-325:

“The name of a candidate authorized by law to appear on a ballot in a general, special, or primary election in this State for any office may be one of the following or a combination of them:

the candidate's given name;

a derivative of the candidate's given name properly acquired under the common law and used in good faith for honest purposes; or a nickname which bears no relation to the candidate's given name but which is used in good faith for honest purposes and does not exceed fifteen letters on the ballot.”

I have an advanced degree or special designation. Can I include that on the ballot?

Per SC State Law Section 7-13-325, you must either use your given name, a derivative name, or nickname. The derivative name or nickname may not imply professional or social status, an office, or military rank.

Can I withdraw my candidacy after filing?

You can withdraw as a candidate. To have your name removed from the ballot, you must withdraw by the 53rd day before the election at 5:00 p.m. This year, the withdrawal deadline is Friday, September 4, at 5:00 pm.

Please see the State Election Commission's Policy on Candidate Withdrawals for more information. A Candidate Withdrawal Form that includes all required information can be found on our website.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS - FILING

Do I have to file my campaign finance information?

Yes, please see the State Ethics Commission's website for more information on deadlines.

How do I file my Statement of Economic Interest and make Campaign Disclosure reports?

You can find more information on filing Statement of Economic Interest forms and Campaign Disclosure reports on the State Ethics Commission's website.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS - ELECTIONS

What's the difference between a primary election and a general election?

Primary elections determine a party's candidate in the general election. Only the Democratic and Republican Parties have primary elections. Other political parties hold a convention to determine their party's candidate in the general election.

Why am I not on the June primary ballot?

If only one person affiliated with their particular party filed for a partisan seat, they will be the default candidate for their party in the general election.

Will there be a runoff for my race?

For the June Primaries, candidates must get a majority of votes. A majority is defined as 50% of the votes plus one additional vote.

If no candidate won a majority of votes, a runoff election will be held between the top two vote-getters.

For the November General Election, candidates do not have to receive a majority of votes. The candidate with the most votes wins.

However, if two candidates tie, a runoff will be held to determine the winner.

Are there rules or guidelines I need to follow while campaigning?

Yes, there are limitations on how you can campaign. For more information, see the State Election Commission's Candidate Dos and Don'ts.
