CHS VOTES

How Can I Vote?

Early Voting

Vote early at any Charleston County early voting center.

Election Day

Vote at your assigned polling location on Election Day.

Absentee by Mail

If you qualify to vote absentee, you can vote by mail.

Check CHSVotes.gov for more information on early voting, polling locations, and voting absentee.

A valid, unexpired photo ID is required to vote. Accepted IDs include:

- SC Driver's License or DMV ID Card
- US Passport or Passport Card

You can view the full list of accepted photo IDs at SCVotes.gov.

What Address Should I Use?

You can register using your permanent address or your school address.

My permanent home is in Charleston County, but I go to school in a different county or state.

You can:

- Register in Charleston County and vote absentee by mail (if you qualify).
- Register with the elections office for the area where your school is located and vote in person.

My permanent home is in a different county or state, but I live in Charleston County for college.

You can:

- Register at your Charleston County address and vote in person.
- Register with the elections office for the area where your school is and vote absentee (if you qualify).

What Am I Voting For?

Charleston County has local, state, and federal elections every year.
