Arrest in Woodside Manor shooting that targeted off-duty officer

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 5, 2022

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Deputies from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office responded before 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 4, 2022, to a report of gunfire targeting a Goose Creek police officer's home in the Woodside Manor neighborhood near Ladson.

The off-duty officer had just arrived in his marked cruiser when the driver of a passing car fired toward his home. The officer and three acquaintances were standing outside the home at the time.

A white sedan matching the vehicle's description was found parked in the community. A man matching the shooter's description also was seen walking in the neighborhood and was detained for further investigation. Trevon Tyrek Belton, 26, was initially arrested after giving false information about his identity. Additional charges were added today in connection with the shooting: four counts of attempted murder and a count of possession of a firearm in a violent crime. Belton is expected to have a bond hearing tonight.

The Goose Creek Police Department responded to assist CCSO.

There is no known motive for the shooting at this time. Detectives continue to investigate.
