

News Release

July 24, 2018
Release Number: 4258

Free Natural Hazards Awareness Expo

How to protect your family, home and pets when it comes to natural hazards

Charleston County Government will host a community expo to educate citizens about natural hazards, new flood maps, the importance of flood insurance, and what to do before during and after a disaster.

Expo Details:

Friday, August 10 from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
Saturday, August 11 from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.
Charleston Area Convention Center
5000 Coliseum Drive, North Charleston, SC 29418
Free Admission, Free Parking

Citizens will be able to talk with employees from Emergency Management, 9-1-1 Consolidated Dispatch, Charleston County Building Inspection Services, National Weather Service and flood insurance experts about natural hazards in the Lowcountry. There will also be various training classes, presentations, and a kid's zone. Citizens are encouraged to bring their elevation certificate to the expo and representatives from Charleston County Building Services will assist in looking up property with the new flood maps.

For information on Charleston County Government news and services, the public can:

- Visit our website: www.charlestoncounty.org

- written by the Public Information Office -