Charleston County Winter Weather Update #4

County offices and facilities, including courts, will open at 12 p.m. Monday

Charleston County returned to OPCON 3 and deactivated the Emergency Operations Center at 1 p.m. today.

County offices and facilities will reopen for normal business at 12 p.m. Monday. This includes all county Convenience Centers and Charleston County Public Library branches and offices.

The Bees Ferry Landfill will open at 9 a.m. Monday. An announcement regarding the Materials Recovery Facility's reopening will be made later today.

The Charleston County Judicial Complex will open at 12 p.m. Monday, and afternoon hearings will proceed as scheduled.

Per the Chief Judge for Administrative Purposes, jurors scheduled to report for the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions should now report at 12 p.m. instead of 9 a.m. to the location indicated on the original summons.

Early voting for the City of Folly Beach Special Election will take place from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday at Board of Voter Registration and Elections headquarters, located at 4340 Corporate Road in North Charleston.

Property tax payments can be made online at www.charlestoncounty.gov and by phone at 866-594-4213.

The Virtual Probate Workshop planned for 10 a.m. tomorrow will take place as scheduled.

The workshop is free to the public and will include guidance on estate planning, estate administration, and the various functions of Probate Court. Please contact Jamie Robinson at 843-666-4701 or jrobinson@charlestoncounty.org for further information or click here to register to attend. The Zoom link to join the workshop is available here.

Latest Forecast

With record low temperatures expected to continue overnight, any melted snow or ice remaining on roadways may refreeze, leading to potentially hazardous driving conditions into the early morning. Residents should continue to use caution when traveling.

County Response and Resources

The Community Information Line was deactivated at 1 p.m. Anyone with questions regarding weather impacts or county operations can reach out via any of the county's official social media channels.

Charleston County Public Works crews continue to support SCOT salting operations and are prepared to work through the night to address any refreeze that occurs as temperatures drop.

As a reminder, anyone who parked for free in the following county-owned parking garages must retrieve their cars by 10 a.m. Monday.

- 90 Cumberland Street
- 85 Queen Street
